

Restore the man.

Online Webcast with Urologist Assistant Professor Joe Lee King Chien

Senior Consultant, Department of Urology, University Surgical Cluster, National University Hospital
Director of Andrology & Male Reproductive Medicine

Early Detection and Management of Hypogonadism in The Type 2 Diabetes Patient Group

Saturday, 4th July 2020, 2.00pm - 3.05pm

Objectives:

Testosterone Deficiency Syndrome are often underdiagnosed. Accurate diagnosis is important in the early detection of TDS with the provision for timely initiation of treatment, where necessary. In this webcast, A. Prof. Lee will share about the unmet needs in the hypogonadal type 2 diabetic patient group. Updates on the guidelines and evidence about screening for T Levels and other associated benefits of treating hypogonadism.

- ★ 1 CME point will be awarded for FULL session attended.
- ★ This is in accordance with Singapore Medical Council guidelines.

Webcast Programme

1400 - 1410 hrs

Facing the unmet need in hypogonadal men with T₂DM

1410 - 1420 hrs

What do the guidelines and evidence say?

1420 - 1430 hrs

Identifying the right patient within your current patient group

1430 - 1440 hrs

Clinical Outcomes of testosterone replacement therapy in hypogonadal men with T₂DM

1440 - 1450 hrs

Long term treatment and safety aspects

1450 - 1505 hrs

Q&A

Please scan the QR code for RSVP
<https://tinyurl.com/TDS4jul>

Chairperson

Dr. Tan Kok Kuan

MBBS (S'pore), Cert. Men's Health, Cert.

Dr Tan Kok Kuan graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2001. His residency was in the two largest public hospitals in Singapore; Tan Tock Seng Hospital and Singapore General Hospital. He was part of the SARS taskforce in SGH and tended to ill patients with suspected SARS during the outbreak. He also worked and trained at the Singapore National Eye Center, National Heart Center and National Skin Center. After leaving the government service, he joined Thomson Medical Center to focus on Pediatric care, followed by a GP Group before setting up Robertson Medical Practice in 2005.

Dr Tan Kok Kuan keeps abreast of developments in the medical world and participates at international Medical Conferences. His professional medical opinion is frequently sought after and he has contributed extensively to the local press. Dr. Tan is also active in community outreach; speaking on a variety of health topics to the general public as well as corporations.

Achievements: Certificate in Men's Health, Certificate in Clinical Dermatology, Advance Botox Certificate, Dermal Fillers Certificate of Competency and Certificate in Surgical Hair Transplant.

Speaker

Assistant Professor Joe Lee King Chien

Senior Consultant, Department of Urology, University Surgical Cluster, National University Hospital
Director of Andrology & Male Reproductive Medicine

Asst Prof Joe Lee is a Senior Consultant in the Department of Urology at National University Hospital. He obtained his medical degree from the National University of Singapore in 2000 and gained fellowship with the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh in 2005. After completing his Master of Medicine (Surgery) in 2007, he focused his training in the field of Urology and received his Specialist accreditation in Urology in 2011.

Asst Prof Lee has special interests in the field of Andrology, Sexual Medicine and Prostate Diseases and runs a specialised Male Sexual Dysfunction clinic in the Urology Centre at National University Hospital.

He is a member of the Singapore Urological Association and executive committee member of the Singapore Men's Health Society.

For Healthcare Professionals Only.

Bayer South East Asia Pte. Ltd.
2, Tanjong Katong Road #07-01, Paya Lebar Quarter 3, Singapore 437161
Tel: +65 6496 1888 Fax: +65 6496 1491 Website: <http://www.bayer.com>

Scan to view Nebido® Abbreviated Product Insert.
Full prescribing information available upon request.

